Poles Are Displeased.

A prospect of this sort is displeasing to many Poles, who fear that the Polish question may be receiving a solution far from that which they desire. Against the prospect of the return of many to their former homes, it is also many to their former normal desire on their argued, is the natural desire on their argued, is the domestic argued, is the natural desire on their part to re-establish the domestic hearth somewhere without waiting for the end of the war. It is thought by many that only families owning land are likely to seek their old homes again, and it is questioned whether even some of these may not choose to remain on their new allotments, liquidating their old titles when the war is over.

Wilkes-Barre Railway Officials and

Employes in Conference. WILKES-BARRE, Pa., November 27 .-

For the first time since the trolley strike was declared in this city, six weeks ago, officials of the Wilkes-Barre Railway Company and of the striking street car men's union got together today to discuss the situation, and although neither side would make public the result of the conference, residents of the Wyoming valley look hopefully upon the meeting as the first sign of the coming of peace in the industrial dispute that has all but paralyzed busi pute that has all but paralyzed busi-ness in the community. The conference was brought about by the intervention of a committee from the local chamber of commerce, and it was stated that further meetings between representa-tives of the company and of the men will be held.
